SCENES AT ELKS' HALL LAST NIGHT

One of Alexandria's Most Interesting Masonic Events

300 AT THE BANQUET

Thrilling Speeches, Enlivening Music and Evening of Alloyed Pleasure at Annual Reunion.

The grand Masonic event in the Elks' Building last night, the closing feature of the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of George Washington, was all that had been anticipated. Members of the craft from most sections of the United States mingled with their Alexandria brethren, and the reunion will long be remembered by the participants. Enlivening music thrilled the company while the members of Martha Washington Chapter, Order Eastern Star, served the feast, which they did with a precision and alacrity wonderful when it is considered that about three hundred guests were present. There was not a hitch in any of the preparations and everything moved smoothly from start to finish.

Appropriate addresses were delivered by Worshipful Wm. H. Parker, of Liberty Lodge, Beverly, Mass.; Henry K. Field, grand Senior Warden of Virginia; Most Worshipful J. Claude Keiper, of Washington; Judge Barrett, of Philadelphia,; Hon Theodore E. Burton, Senator from Ohio, and Hon Thomas J. Heflin, Representative from Alabama.

Alexandria - Washington Lodge held a short session in the Elks' Lodge room about 8 o'clock, and at its close the members and their guests proceeded to the auditorium on the second floor where the tables had been spread. They found everything in readiness and the members of Martha Washington Chapter, attired in colonial fashion, prepared to serve.

The banquet room had been tastefully decorated. The curtain of the stage bore a heroic picture of Washington with Mount Vernon in the back ground.

Worshipful Charles E. Tennesson, Master of Alexandria- Washington Lodge, rapped the company to order when Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector of St. Paul's Church, invoked a blessing. The feast followed which continued about an hour. The following was the menu:

* * * * * * * * *
* Oyster Cocktail *
* Olives Celery *
* Wafers *
* Creamed Oysters *
* Mixed Pickles *
* Cold Roast Turkey, Old Va. Ham *
* Cranberry Sauce *
* Chicken Salad Banquet Rolls *
* Salted Almonds *
* Ice Cream Fruit Cake *
* Roquefort Cheese Coffee *
* Cigars *
* * * * * * * * *

The music was furnished by the Minster's Society Orchestra. During the intervals which elapsed in the announcement of the speakers by the Worshipful Master, who acted as toastmaster, the airs rendered were animating to the banqueters. When "It's a Long Way to Tipperary" was rendered the company joined in the chorus with a vim.

Wor. Wm. H. Parker, of Liberty Lodge, Breverly Mass., was the first speaker announced. His speech, in the main, was in reference to the relations which have existed so long between his lodge and Alexandria Washington Lodge. He recounted the number of pleasant incidents which in recent years have served to bind more firmly than ever the brethren of Massachusetts and Virginia.

Grand Senior Warden Henry K. Field was the next speaker. He was called upon to take the place of Most Wor. J. B. Woods, Grand Master of Masons of Virginia, who was unable to be present on account of indisposition. In the course of his address the Grand Senior Warden referred to the proposed memorial to Washington and to the Grand Lodge of Virginia in appropriate terms; also to the principles of the craft, recommending faithfulness to the tenets of Masonry by all brethren.

Secretary A. G. Uhler subsequently read letters of regret from a number of prominent members of the craft who had been invited to mingle with their Alexandria brethren on the occasion of the grand annual reunion.

Most Wor. J. Claude Keiper, of Washington, was the next speaker. He spoke enthusiastically of the proposed memorial temple to Washington in Alexandria. He also made interesting references to the principles of the order.

Senator Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio, followed, and for about half an hour kept the close attention of the company. The speaker expressed pleasure at being able to be present on this interesting occasion, realizing, he said, that he was within the shadow of Mt. Vernon and with brethren who were devising ways to erect a memorial structure to George Washington. It was a movement not only of great interest to Virginia, but to every state in the Union. While the great man was a citizen of the Old Dominion, he really belonged to the entire country. Hence Masons throughout the land are naturally interested in the plan for erecting a temple to his memory. The Senator then gave a rapid resume of the life of George Washington, the part he played before, during and after the revolutionary war, referred to his wonderful foresight as expressed in his farewell address, and said Washington saw far ahead and doubtless obtained glimpses of issues which would confront the country in the twentieth century. Senator Burton in closing said that after the close of the unfortunate conflict in America both sections made every occurrence antedate or post date the war. He suggested that after the great clash in Europe shall have been brought to a close the world will ante and post date their history in a similar manner. He said we should be sincerely sorry for the terrible carnage which has been precipitated, and hope the time may speedily come when the United States will be in a position to raise its hands and say "Peace—peace."

Judge Barrett, of Philadelphia, representing the Rt. Worshipful Grand Master of Pennsylvania, and a member of Lodge, No. 2, of Philadelphia, delivered a brief, but interesting talk in connection with the early history of Masonry in Virginia, and especially that of Alexandria-Washington Lodge. He spoke of Dr. Dick and other members of the craft in by-gone years and the relations which existed between the Alexandria and Pennsylvania brethren in continental and subsequent years.

Representative Thomas J. Heflin, of Alabama, was the last speaker. Mr. Heflin delivered an address at the reunion of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, January 19, 1913. His speech on that occasion as was the case last night, abounded in pleasantry, but at times he became pathetic. He spoke of the part Virginia and other southern states have played in the history of the United States, naming mnay great men from this section who did so much toward making the country what it is today. He paid a touching tribute to the women of the south, but said "women in politics would lose their charm. They would surrender more than they would gain." These words were significant, and brought to the minds of all present the fact that he is on record as against woman suffrage. The speaker, however, after uttering these chilling words in the presence of the women composing the Martha Washington Chapter, who took them good-naturedly, told some anecdotes in connection with scenes enacted by suffragettes in Washington recently which cast his auditors into convlusive laughter, and thereby made amends for his declaration. Mr. Heflin also told some amusing stories before he took his seat.

It was midnight when the company adjourned.

NEGRO KILLS HIMSELF

Petersburg, Va, Feb. 23— George Cox, a colored youth of sixteen years son of Charles Cox, a worthy Dinwiddiefarmer, comm ted suicide at his home in that county on Sunday morning by shooting himself through the head. The case was a peculair one. On Saturday night, while returning with some boy companions from J. E. Perkinson's store at Marmora, the youth got into a personal difficulty with one of his companions, and it is said, handled him quite roughly. The mother of the latter sent word to the father of the Cox boy that she intended to have George arrested for beating her son. On Sunday morning George was directed by his father to hitch up a horse and buggy to drive with him to the woman's house to make apology and amends for beating her son, with the hope of avoiding court proceedings. George hitched the horse to the buggy as directed and then went to the house, secured a gun, and placing the muzzle to his forehead, blew the top of his head off. It is supposed that the boy so dreaded arrest that he prepared to kill himself.

CANNOT BE PROSECUTED

Express Messenger Who Broke Open Safe May Be Discharged.

Richmond, Feb. 23—"There is no law under which they can be prosecuted," said W. A. Mehegan, general agent of the Southern Express Company, in discussing the confession of M. M. Williams and A. Y. Chambliss, the messengers who broke open a safe on the express car of the Atlantic Coast Line train which left Washington on Thursday night for Jacksonville, Fla., and threw it into Acquia Creek, between Alexandria and Fredericksburg.

"The two messengers both owned keys which would open the safe," said Mr. Mehegan. "They had left them at home, and so when Chambliss wanted to get some of his papers in the box he and Williams used the axe to breast it open. They became alarmed, and foolishly told the story of the robbery.

Mr. Mehegan seemed certain that they will not be prosecuted. Whether they will remain in the employ of the express company he was unable to say. This is a matter, he said, which will be acted upon by the Washington office both messengers being directed under it.

The signed statements setting forth exactly what occurred were obtained on Saturday in Washington by special Agent A. F. Cannaday, of Richmond, Fredericsburg and Potomac Railroad.

He questioned the two men separately, and each made a clean breast of the whole affair.

It was apparent from the first that the story of the robbery, as told by the two messengers, would not bear investigation. The solution of what for a while appeared to be a mystery was inevitable.

WILL STAND BY WILSON

Taft Says United States is Passing Through Grave Crisis.

Morristown, N. J., Feb. 23—The United States is threatened with a serious invasion of its rights as a neutral by the warring nations of Europe, and in preserving its commerce with those nations is face to face with a crisis, in the opinion of former President William H. Taft. In the solution of that crisis, should it arise, no jingo spirit must be allowed to prevail, Mr. Taft advised; neither pride nor momentary passion should influence our judgement.

"And when the President shall act," Mr. Taft declared, "we must stand by him to the end. In this determination we may be sure that all will join, no matter what their previous views; no matter what their European origin. All will forget their differences in self-sacrificing loyalty to our common flag and our common country."

EMPERORS TO MEET.

William And Francis Joseph to Hold First Conference Since War.

Vienna, Feb. 23.—Emperor Francis Joseph, of Austria, and Emperor William, of Germany, soon are to hold their first conference since the war began, the Neue Freie Presse announces. The two sovereigns will meet on the Austro-German frontier.

The Neue Freie Presse states that Imperial Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, of Germany, and Premier Baron Burian, of Austria-Hungary, held a long conference Sunday. The chancellor also was received by Archduke Charles, Francis Joseph, heir to the Austrian throne, who later had the two ministers as luncheon guests.

The conference of the ministers was held at the headquarters of Archduke Frederick, comander-in-chief of the Austrian armes.

Geneva, Switzerland, Feb. 23.—The forthcoming conference of Emperors William and Francis Joseph is reported in dispatches received from Austrian sources yesterday to have as its chief object consideration of a proposal from Pope Benedict that the Teutonic allies signify their willingness to make peace.

This report is borne out by a dispatch from Rome saying that the Pope has approached the Kaiser through a German cardinal and suggested that, as Germany and her ally have upheld their military honor, terms of peace might be made now.

HEAVY DAMAGE TO CITY OF RHEIMS

Germans Bombard Two Sides of City on Sunday and Monday

CATHEDRAL STRUCK

Numbers of Persons Killed and Wounded by Exploding Shells—Flames Spring From Buildings.

Paris, Feb. 23—Heavy damage was done to Rheims by the German bombardment of the city on Sunday and Monday. The Germans bombarded from two sides, the east and north, and the cathedral was struck a number of times. Many buildings were set on fire.

The Germans used their biggest guns, and it is believed that a dozen persons were killed and wounded by exploding shells. The cannonado was opened by the batteries stationed near Bourgogne, and soon the artillery massed near Moronvillers joined in.

During the darkness flames sprang up from burning buildings, lighting up the sky for miles. This furnished an excellent target for the German gunners, who made the most of it. On Monday the sky was overcast by a thick pall of black smoke, which rolled up from the conflagration.

After a brief lull the German guns were again in action at dawn, and shells began exploding in the streets all over the ruined city. The French batteries stationed behind Rheims replied to the German fire, and all day an artillery duel ranged across he city.

WOMAN'S CURSE.

Wife Who Had Incurred Malediction Mother of Three Blind Children.

Greensburg, Pa., Feb. 23.—After a a curse pronounced on his wife had been followed by blindness of his three children, George Yusko, a paper hanger and painter of Mount Pleasant, left his wife and children, it is alleged, refusing longer to support them. Yusko was arrested on a charge of desertion, and before Justice of the Peace L. S. Rhodes Yusko told an amazing story.

When a girl of 16 Mrs. Annie Yusko, it was testified(put out the eyes of seven ducks owned by a neighbor, using a wire to perform the act. Finding her blinded ducks, the enraged neighbor hurled maledictions on the girl, expressing the hope that God would punish her likewise.

Mr. and Mrs. Yusko are the parents of three children, each of whom is almost totally blind. Terrified by what seeemd to be a fulfillment of the neighbor's curse, Yusko urged his wife to ask forgiveness of the neighbor and beg that the spell of the curse be broken. This Mrs. Yusko refused to do. Then Yusko left home.

He produced his three children in the office of the justice as evidence of the truth of his words. Physicians present at the hearing said that the curse had preyed so upon Mrs. Yusko's mind that her children were influenced prenatally and blindness resulted.

REV. JOHN R. BAGBY DEAD.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 23.—The Rev. Dr. John R. Bagby, 80 years old, for more than 50 years in charge of Baptist Churches in Powhatan county, died Sunday in Ballsville. He was a member of the board of trustees of Richmond College.

A dispatch from Amsterdam states that German travelers from Berlin declare the capital is gloomy over the comparatively small forces of Germany's blockade. The plan to establish a naval base at Zeebrugge is reported to have been abandoned owing to the danger of bombardment by British airmen. Recent aerial raids by the British over Zeebrugge showed the plan to be impracticable. The Kaiser also abandoned his plan to visit Cuxhaven.

FIRE IN OLD LANDMARK.

School Building on North Washington Street Slightly Damaged.

The alarm of fire about 9 o'clock last night was caused by the discovery of a blaze in an old building on the west side of Washington street, between Cameron and Queen. The fire was soon subdued by extinguishers.

This building is one of Alexandria's oldest landmarks. Many years ago it was used as a sugar house, and was used later by the Kempers as an academy and previous to the civil war by the late Benjamin Hallowell as an educational institution. Robert E. Lee, it will be remembered, attended Hallowell's School. For many years the late John S. Blackburn conducted a school there which was known as the Potomac Academy. It has not been occupied for some time.

The alarm about 11:30 o'clock this morning was caused by the burning of a stable on the east side of West street, between King and Cameron The structure was practically destroyed. An adjoining dwelling house was damaged by the fire. The origin is unknown.

NEWS OF THE DAY

All the young men in Germany, between 17 and 20, who failed to volunteer for the army and cannot give an adequate excuse are now being called out to serve as untrained landsturm. Boys and girls are to be employed in farmwork, spending summer and autumn in the East Prussian provinces, for which purpose they will be excused from school attendance. It is significant that this measure is to remain in force "till the end of the war," in other words, as at present foreseen, till November.

A special dispatch to the Berlin Zeitung am Mittag from Koenigsberg says that Emperor William during his visit to Loetzen, East Prussia, at the time of the recent operations, spoke of the necessity of dealing sparingly with food supplies. He said he expected of every German that he would restrict the consumption of food as much as possible, which, the emperor said, under no circumstances should be used as food for horses.

The Amsterdam Telegraaf, has received a dispatch from Liege stating that recently several German soldiers snatched the American colors from the breasts of a number of citizens and threw them in the mud. Fourteen of the burghers protested to the American consul against the act. A demonstration by several thousands of children has been arranged as a sign of gratitude for the assistance given the Belgian population by Americans.

Joseph Caillaux, former French minister of finance, whose wife was acquitted of the murder of Gaston Calmette, editor of Le Figaro, after a sensational trial which came to an end shortly before the European war started, came to blows with Senor Eduardo Burnay, son of Count Burnay, after an altercation in Lisbon Sunday. The fist fight, which occurred at the entrance to the International Hotel, was stopped quickly, but a duel is expected to follow.

GERMANS STRIVE TO TAKE FORTRESS

Several Divisions Reported in Motion Near German Stronghold

BIG BATTLES BEGIN

Teutons Making Terrific Efforts to Mask by Swinging Around Forts in Vicinity of Warsaw.

Petrograd, Feb. 23— The Germans are making desperate efforts to press on to the great fortress of Novo Georgievsk, guarding Warsaw from the north, it was officially admitted here today.

Strong bodies of the Kaiser's troops are passing in a southwesterly direction along the Bohr and Narew rivers toward Przasnyz where a great German force is concentrating. These comprise several divisions that participated in von Hindenburg's campaign against the Russians in East Prussia.

Big battles have begun southwest of Przasnyz, where the Germans from the Mazurian lakes region have effected a junction with the army moving upon Novo Georgievsk from the northwest in the Plonsk region. In official circles the new German drive upon Warsaw is not viewed with alarm, but the grand duke's forces in this region are being strongly re-enforced.

The fighting around the fortress of Ossowiec and west of Grodno continues, with the Germans making terrific efforts to mask the Ossowiec fortress by swinging around the forts to the north. So close has the enemy approached to Ossowiec that the guns of the outer defenses have been brought into play.

CONFESSES CRIME.

Basketmaker in Richmond Implicates Another Man.

Richmond, Feb. 23.—C. L. Lozon, 54 years old, last night confessed to Policeman Napier through the bars of a First Station cell how he took advantage of 11 year old Ethel Alvis in his home yesterday afternoon, and how he had attempted to take advantage of 12 year old Vera Hawley on several other occasions. He told of giving the children candies, cakes and small bits of money, thus enticing them into his room back of his shop, at 235 North Twentieth street.

In a cell just above him lay J. H. Carver, 43 years old, who Lozon had implicated. Carver denied all knowledge of the charges against him, and denied knowing the little girls, except by sight. Lozon, after his arrest at his home yesterday afternoon by Policemen Duffy, Kidd and Matt, asserted that Carver had induced the little Alvis child to enter his place several weeks ago, and offered this statement as an excuse for his own conduct.

Mrs. Hawley was seen last night, and admitted, with tear-dimmed eyes, that the assertions of the police were true. She said she based the statement on information given her by Dr. W. H. Parker. The Alvis child's mother lies in her home at the point of death, and could not be seen last night. She knows nothing of the little daughter's misfortune and all intimation of it was carefully guarded from her. A brother of the girl however, said that physicians at Virginia Hospital had made an examination, and had found the assertions of the police to be correct.

Neither of the children had breathed a word of the alleged recent meetings with Lozon at their homes, and the first news of the crime was broken there by the police yesterday afternoon.

WOMEN'S PEACE PARTY.

Meeting Yesterday Afternoon in Lee Camp Hall Great Success.

The meeting yesterday afternoon in Lee Camp Hall, of the Alexandria Branch of the Women's Peace Party was a splendid success. The chairman, Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, presided in a most charming manner, and her opening address was eloquent.

THE LATE R. M. SCOTT.

The funeral of the late R. Marshall Scott took place yesterday morning at his old home "Bush Hill," Fairfax county. The service was read by his former pastor, the Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary, near this city. The interment was in Ivy Hill cemetery, where the rest of his immediate family are laid with the exception of one sister, Mrs. Bernard H. Johnston, who is buried in Washington. When the track of the Richmond and Fredericksburg was changed seven years ago, it passed through the garden of "Bush Hill," near the family cemetery, so all the bodies interred there were removed to 'Ivy Hill.' "Bush Hill" will still remain in the family connection, as Mr. Leonard Gunnell, a cousin of the late Mr. Scott, intends to make it his home.

The pallbearers at Mr. Scott's funeral were Messrs. Wesley Bitzer, Eldon Raison, William Kitson and his son, Clarence Kitson.

DEATH OF E. J. SIMPSON

Well-Known Alexandrian Passes Away in Oklahoma City Recently.

"Major E. J. Simpson, whose death in Oklahoma City, was 64 years old. The deceased was born in Alexandria, Va., in 1850, and came to Oklahoma in 1888, one year before the territory was opened to homestead settlement. He served as superintendent of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Indian agency at Darlington before Oklahoma had found a place on the territorial map, and was a member of the territorial legislature, representing Canadian county. Major Simpson was at one time county attorney of Canadian county, and was a journalist for a number of years, having been editor of the El Reno Supper Bell, the El Reno Globe and the El Reno Democrat. As editor, public official and practicing attorney his sphere of acquaintance was extensive. Locating in Oklahoma City four years ago, Major Simpson had been the first reader of the Christian Science Church of this city. Inside and outside of the congregation Major Simpson was noted for his gentle nature, for his courtesy and for his devotion to mankind. Among all classes his kindness was prevalent. Only three months ago Major Simpson lost his wife. Will Simpson, a son, and Mrs. J. T. McClelland, a daughter, both of Oklahoma City, and one grandson, are the survivors of Major Simpson."

The deceased is well remembered by old Alexandrians. He was a son of the late Henry L. Simpson, who for many years conducted the shoe business on north Royal street. He was a member of a family of thirteen, all of whom are now dead.

Over Sixty Dollars Realized From Sale of "Cherries" Yesterday.

The play ground committee of the Parents'-Teachers' Association desire to express their thanks to the community for the generous response made yesterday to their efforts to raise the necessary sum towards conducting the play grounds at the Washington School this year. The movement came to its birth last summer when the grounds were prepared on the premieses of the old Lancaterian School, founded and sustained by George Washington in colonialdays. The young people engaged in disposing of the "cherries" turned in over sixty dollars. While the committee appreciates the liberality extended those who disposed of the "cherries," they desire to express especial thanks to the Chamber of Comerce for the use of their rooms as a distributing point, also to the Barrett Press for favors. The girls who sold the bouteniers were assisted by Boy Scouts and some school boys. The "cherries" were in charge of the following: Miss Sophia Tackett, Mary Glenn Uhler, Eliza Douglass, Nellie Uhler, Katherine Waller, Julia Duncan, Fannie Nicols, Lucy Webb, Lucy Uhler, Marian Negley, Loius e Howard, ler, Marian Negley, Louise Howard, Lillian Allison, Barbara Campbell, Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater, Mrs. Taylor Burke, Misses Hammersley, McCalister, and Margaret Duke.

ALEXANDRIA THE MASONIC MECCA.

The organization among the Masons of the United States of the association for the erection of a memorial temple in Alexandria in respect to the memory of George Washington gains impetus each year. The annual gatherings in this city in February attract the attention of members of the craft from all sections of the country to Alexandria; hence it is no longer a matter of local interest solely. As one of the speakers at the banquet of Alexan[illegible]a-Washington Lodge aptly said [la]st night, that while Washington [w]as a Virginian and practically an [A]lexandrian he is the property of no [o]ne state or city, but belongs to the United States of America.

This assertion is irrefutable, and the movement among Masons throughout the nation to erect a fitting memorial in our city, which will cost half a million dollars, is causing enthusiasm among the craft. Already $40,000 have been subscribed by various grand bodies, and it is predicted at the next meeting of the Memorial Association $100,000 will have been raised.

The annual reunion last night was one of the most successful and interesting ever given by Alexandria Washington Lodge. Representatives of the order from the north, south, east and west mingled with their Alexandria brethren, and a flow [illegible] made the feast from beginning [illegible] [c]omposing Martha Washington [illegible] Order Eastern Star, literally saw [illegible] went away dissatisfied, as they [illegible] provided an abundance of season[illegible] [d]ainties, and the celerity with [illegible] they moved in serving their [mult]itude of guests was astonishing. [illegible] was no waiting for the courses, [illegible] fair one was at one's elbows all [the ti]me anticipating his every want. [We] cannot give a verbatim report [of a]ll that was uttered by the enter[taining] speakers. There was pathos [and] humor, interlarded with inter[esting] history of colonial days, the [revo]lutionary epoch, the war of 1812 and our civil war.

REPRODUCED REMINISCENCES

Representative Heflin in his happy [add]ress last night at the banquet of [Ale]xandria Washington Lodge refer[red t]o some of the ludicrous scenes [atten]ding the stampede from the [ba]ttlefield of Bull Run July 21, 1861. [He] merely [made] reference to those [incid]ents, [illegible] Alexandrians, who witnessed some of the thrilling scenes incident [illegible] way he brought to [illegible] laughable scenes. The speaker told of the numbers who hired open carriages and drove to Bull Run on that memorable Sunday for the purpose of witnessing a battle. It was such a crowd as might assemble for the purpose of seeing a tournament or to indulge in a picnic. Nearly all carried refreshments in the shape of sandwiches, etc., which they imagined they could masticate while scanning the battle.

When the retreat set in there was a pell mell rush—everybody for himself—and carriages, wagons and caissons were soon piled in the roads.

The London Times had sent a special correspondent named Russell to write up the battle. He was mounted upon a charger when the stampede set in. He was a stout man, and it was said hugged his horse around the neck as the animal started, the latter as much terrified as the human beings who were rushing to get behind the defenses of Washington. In this ludicrous position, with his arms around his charger's neck, Russell managed to reach the capital city.

A correspondent of the New York Times, who was on the field and witnessed Russell's skedaddle, that was the word used in war times, wrote an amusing account of the incident. The correspondent from that time on was known as "Bull Run Russell," and during war times clowns in circuses gave exhibitions of Russell's retreat from Bull Run to the great amusement of the audiences.

TURKISH BARBARITIES.

Armenians Victims of Blood Thirsty Hordes.

Petrograd, Feb. 23.—Not until now have details become available as to the horrors perpetrated by the Turks during their occupation of Ardaunch, near the trans-Caucasian frontier.

At Tiflis, according to the correspondent of the Russkoe Slovo, the Turks at first confined themselves to pillage, and slew only fifteen civilians. After the news of the Russian occupation of Ardahan was received, however, the Mussulman threw off his mask and the same evening organized a systematic massacre of 1150 Armenians, who were led out in the street, where they were either shot or their throats cut. Old Turkish residents, for years on friendly terms with the Armenians, slew in cold blood their old acquaintances, carefully counting the bodies in order to make sure that the entire families were wiped out.

Fifty Armenians were removed from prison, stripped and compelled to leap, one by one, into the Abyss of Jenedere, known as the Devil's Gap, until one of the victims carried a Turk with him. The remainder then were shot.

Two hundred and fifty men were massacred at Tambot, and their women carried into slavery. The Turks did not even permit interment of the bodies, but left them to be devoured by dogs.

WANTS $5,000 DAMAGES

Young Woman Files Suit in Richmond Against Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co.

Richmond Feb., 23—Claiming that she was dismissed without cause, Ethel Wilson, for six years employed as cashier of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, has brought suit against that corporation in the Law and Equity Court, seeking $5,000 damages.

The plaintiff in her declaration, sets forth that an inspector of the State Bureau of Labor called at the Broad Street store where she was at work and inquired whether certain separate sanitary conveniences were provided for female employes. She replied in the negative. The result was that the store's manager, R. S. Humphries received a summons to appear in Police Court.

Shortly afterward, the plaintiff charges, she was discharged by Humphries with the words "that's what you get for telling the truth." Later she alleges, she was told that she was dismissed for inefficiency.

"In the Champagne district there was comparative quiet yesterday. The number of prisoners taken by us during the last battles in this region has been increased to 15 officers and more than 1,000 men. The sanguinary losses of the enemy have been extraordinarily high.

"The enemy made an unsuccessful attack on our positions to the east of Verdun during the night.

"In the Vosges the villages of Hochrad and Stossweier were taken by us after a short engagement. Otherwise nothing of importance occurred."

JAPAN AND CHINA

Congressman Flood Sees No Alarming Conditions Between Mongolian Nations

Washington, Feb. 23—Congressman Hal D. Flood, of Virginia, chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee, declared in the House of Representatives a few days ago his belief that Japan has no desire to crush China through the series of diplomatic demands Japan has made upon her; that the great republic of the East, with her 400,000,000 people would not sit supinely by and allow her rights to be invaded and her liberty destroyed, and that the United States will not allow her rights regarding the open door or any other question in the Orient to be interfered with by any country.

Mr. Flood's speech which was applauded vigorously throughout by both sides of the chamber, was made in reply to the criticism hurled yesterday at the Foreign Affairs Committee by Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Alabama, who complained that Mr. Flood's committee through the influence of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, had smothered his resolution and refused to hold hearings requested by him in regard to what he declared was a plot under way by Japan to seize the entire territory.
